Jersey Cattle Awards. WESTMINSTER GRANITE COMPANY'S HERD WINS ALL THE PRINCIPAL PRIZES.

Colonel B. Snowden Andrews's Jerseys won yesterday the following premiums:

Imported bull Snowden, best bull three years old and over, $25; cow Florence Deane, best cow three years old and over, $25; cow Florence Deane, best thoroughbred Jersey cow of any age, diploma.

Imported bull Snowden, best thoroughbred bull of any age, Jersey bred, diploma; Florence Deane 2d, second premium two years and under three, $9; Bright-Gold Minnie, second premium, one year and under two, $4.

Also the herd premium. Best bull imported Snowden and four cow Florence Deane and Florence Deane 2d, Meggy, Bright 2d, Royal Beauty 2d, diploma.

An attempt was made in a quibble to prevent Colonel Andrews from competing for the prize offered by the American Jersey Cattle Club, because he had not made a formal entry, although the premium list of the Virginia State Agricultural Society as published is silent as to any such premium.

The expert judge decided in the following words: "In the contest for the American Jersey-Cattle Club premium the award is made to the herd of M. B. Rowe. If the herd of Colonel Andrews is entitled to competition for the prize I should award it to this herd."

It will be seen that Colonel Andrews's Westham herd is keeping up the reputation gained for it by his great cow 'Oxford Kate, who unfortunately died last year.
